

Draw a stained glass window.
Draw one that's in your worship space or make up your own.

Time for a church architecture lesson! Stained glass has been used in churches since the 600s.

Stained glass windows are kind of like pictures in a book. They help tell a story!

The Widow's Offering

TODAY'S THEME IS APPEARANCES.

Sometimes it is hard to share.

Jesus saw who shared from all they had. Above the offering plate list some of your belongings that you could share better with others.

A widow came in and put in two copper coins.

On the first coin, write or draw what that you could give to the church now.

On the other coin, write or draw what you would like to give in the future.

Her offering seemed small,
but it was actually very big.

Today our church family prays for...
